

10
NOV

THE SECRET OF LITTLE ROSE (RÓŻYCZKA 2)

3:00 - 4:45 PM

dir. Jan Kidawa-Błoński, 2023; 106 min

Joanna Warczevska, daughter of an eminent writer, is at the peak of her life. Her thriving political career and family happiness are instantly destroyed by a terrorist attack in which her beloved husband is killed. When fate gives her a new chance in life, another blow hits her. Someone sends her photos and documents undermining her family ties and suggesting that her mother has collaborated with the Security Service in the past.

THE SCARBORN (KOS)

5:15 - 7:15 PM

dir. Paweł Maślona, 2023; 120 min

Spring of 1794, Poland is in a state of unrest. General Tadeusz 'Kos' Kościuszko returns to the country, planning to ignite an uprising against the Russians by mobilizing Polish gentry and peasants. He is accompanied by his faithful friend and former slave, Domingo. Kościuszko is being tracked down by a merciless Russian cavalry captain, Dunin, who wants to do whatever it takes to capture the general before he starts a national revolt.

17
NOV

DOPPELGÄNGER. DOUBLE (DOPPELGÄNGER. SOBOWTÓR)

3:00 - 5:00 PM

dir. Jan Holoubek, 2023; 120 min

Hans and Jan Bitner live on opposite sides of the Iron Curtain. Hans lives in France, he leads a quiet life. Bitner is a Pole, involved in the fight for a free Poland. Their lives are different, but there is one detail that links them.

FEAST OF FIRE (ŚWIĘTO OGNIĄ)

5:30 - 7:05 PM

dir. Kinga Dębska, 2023; 94 min

Two sisters struggle with their own bodies. One, pushed by ambition, seeks the limits of its possibilities, for the other the body is a prison. One believes that ballet will save her from her memories. The other watches the world from her balcony with such attention that she sees and hears more. Their father flees to the only place where he feels he is truly alive. Each of them is dishing out the past and taming the present.

